

The Masses and the Classes Use and Praise Pe-ru-na

A Fruit-Grower's Letter.

W. E. Birch, Fruit-grower, Afton, Va., writes:
"My wife was very much run down and out of sorts every day. She had female weakness and was very weak, nervous, and had no appetite."
"We had our family doctor to give her medicine, but she did not improve in the least. She has consumption in her family and she was in such bad shape and so run down that I began to get very uneasy, but your medicine has made an entirely new woman of her."—W. E. Birch.

An Ex-Consul's Letter.

Hon. James Morgan, 1735 Twentieth street, Washington, D. C., is Ex-Consul U. S. Navy and Ex-Consul to Australia.
Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman endorses Peruna in the following words: "The use of your Peruna as a remedy or a cure for catarrh by many of my friends who have been benefited by the same, as well as my own experience as to its efficacy and good tonic properties, causes me to recommend Peruna to all persons."—James Morgan.

An Old Man's Letter.

Mr. Isaac Brock of McLennan county, Tex., has attained the great age of 111 years. He speaks as follows of Peruna: "As for Dr. Hartman's remedy, Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if not the only reliable, remedy for catarrhal affections. It has been my stand-by for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme age to this remedy."—Mr. Isaac Brock.

A U. S. Senator's Letter.

Hon. W. V. Sullivan, United States Senator from Mississippi, in a letter recently written to Dr. Hartman, says the following of Peruna as a catarrh remedy: "For some time I have been a sufferer from catarrh in its most insidious stage, so much so that I became alarmed as to my general health. But hearing of Peruna as a good remedy, I gave it a fair trial and soon began to improve. Its effects were distinctly beneficial, removing the distressing symptoms, and was particularly good as a tonic."—Hon. W. V. Sullivan.

A Pastor's Letter.

Rev. S. H. Renfro of Norborne, Mo., had running ears. He says:
"My head ached and broke and my ears ran terribly. I tried several remedies with no relief. At last I got a bottle of Peruna, and it did me so much good that I kept on using it; and on the fourth bottle, and must say it has removed all my bad symptoms. My head does not pain any more, my ears have stopped running, and I feel a great deal better."—Rev. S. H. Renfro.

A Judge's Letter.

Judge S. H. Mangum of Helena, Ark., says the following in regard to Peruna as a catarrh cure and general tonic:
"I take pleasure in recommending your great national remedy as an excellent catarrh remedy. I have used it for a very short time and find I am much improved. It is also a good tonic and should be used by every one whose system needs building up."—S. H. Mangum.

A Physician's Letter.

Dr. Llewellyn Jordan, Medical Examiner of U. S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peruna:
"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man, after months of suffering. Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."—Dr. Llewellyn Jordan.

An Actress's Letter.

Mrs. McKee Rankin, actress, of New York City, writes:
"No woman should be without a bottle of Peruna in reserve. As a remedy for catarrh of the head and throat it is, I believe, without an equal. Peruna is an effective preventive against colds and coughs."—Mrs. McKee Rankin.

A Governor's Letter.

Hon. G. W. Atkinson, Governor of West Virginia, in a recent letter from Charleston, W. Va., says:
"I can recommend your preparation, Peruna, as a tonic. Its reputation as a cure for catarrh is excellent, it having been used by a number of people known to me with the very best results."—Hon. G. W. Atkinson.

A Business Man's Letter.

Hon. Wm. N. Selig, a prominent business man of Chicago, Ill., in speaking of Peruna, the great catarrh remedy, says as follows:
"After having used several remedies for indigestion, with no beneficial results, I was induced by a friend of mine to try Peruna, and I gladly say that it effected a positive cure. I have lately recommended it to several of my acquaintances, as I firmly believe it is all that is claimed for it."—Wm. N. Selig.

A Sawyer's Letter.

F. W. Radtke, 740 Minter street, Philadelphia, Pa., writes:
"I have been troubled with catarrh for four years, and could not work at my trade. I have tried almost every cure on the face of the earth, and had doctors attend me at their office and in the hospital, but could not get relief until I tried your wonderful Peruna. After taking the second bottle I could go to work at my trade (sawyer), and the dust has no effect on my throat now. I shall recommend Peruna to everybody who suffers with catarrh."—F. W. Radtke.

A Young Girl's Letter.

Miss Caille Windham, Moore's Bridge, Ala., Tuscaloosa county, writes:
"I am twenty-one years of age, and have been subject to spells of sore throat all my life, and for seventeen months I had hardly been clear of it. Our home physician treated it, but it got no better. I have now taken nearly five bottles of Peruna, and feel as well as I ever did in my life. I feel that it is a great blessing to me. I can safely recommend Peruna as a permanent cure for catarrh of the throat and will take pleasure in doing so."—Caille Windham.

An Architect's Letter.

Hon. I. S. Smithmeyer, architect of the new Congressional Library of Washington, D. C., writes:
"I endorse the good opinion expressed by Senators and Representatives in Congress regarding the curative qualities of your compound. Those who have used it recommend it as a tonic which is particularly effective as a cure for catarrh."—I. S. Smithmeyer.

A Housewife's Letter.

Mrs. Maggie Franks, 617 Main street, Greenville, Miss., writes:
"I was troubled for a number of years with systemic catarrh. I had almost constant pain in the side, stomach trouble, a bad cough, caught cold very easily, and felt nervous and tired all the time. Peruna has made me a healthy, strong woman. I improved in strength and flesh rapidly after beginning your medicine, and can do more work now and not feel it than I have done for years."—Maggie Franks.

A Father's Letter.

Mr. Henry Wesseler, Wacousta, Mich., writes:
"About two months ago we wrote you for advice for our little girl. She was in a very bad condition then. We gave her two bottles of Peruna and a half bottle of Mandlin, and she is well now, which we feel very thankful for."—Henry Wesseler.

A School Teacher's Letter.

Miss Johanna Soyer, teacher in Oakley avenue school, Chicago, Ill., writes:
"Last year I was very ill and could barely attend to my duties in the school room. After using three bottles of Peruna I was completely restored to my usual health."—Miss Johanna Soyer.

A Cavalryman's Letter.

Anton J. Frank, Captain of the 12th Ohio Cavalry, Co. D., writes from 837 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, Ill.:
"No praise bestowed upon Peruna could be too high. I suffered for years with a complication of troubles of the pelvic organs from exposure in the army, and could find no relief until I tried Peruna. It meant life and health to me, broken down as I was and unable to enjoy life. I am now feeling well and strong, and without one ache or pain."—Anton J. Frank.

A Lawyer's Letter.

Hon. Louis J. Behan, lawyer, 820-923 Stock Exchange Building, Chicago, Ill., writes:
"During the recent gubernatorial campaign in this State, I was a trouble to lead with severe hoarseness and sore throat. At the suggestion of a friend I tried Peruna, which gave me complete relief."—Louis J. Behan.

A Society Lady's Letter.

Miss Olive Carland, 181 51st street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
"Last winter, coming home from a ball, I was suddenly chilled and caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and in my head. Peruna was recommended to me, and I gave it a trial, and in less than a month all traces of catarrh had left my head and throat, and I felt much better and stronger."—Miss Olive Carland.

A Mayor's Letter.

Hon. B. J. Irvin, mayor of Washington, Ga., endorses Peruna in the following statement:
"I have frequently used Peruna in my family and have found it an excellent remedy for colds and a tonic. I often recommend it to my friends."—Hon. B. J. Irvin.

A Chief Justice's Letter.

Chief Justice Chambers of Washington, D. C., writes as follows:
"I have tried one bottle of Peruna and I can truthfully say it is one of the best tonics I ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all sufferers who are in need of a good medicine. I can recommend it as one of the very best remedies for catarrh."—W. L. Chambers.

A Traveler's Letter.

J. Edward Clark, 402 Temple street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes:
"I fully believe Peruna saved my life. About two years ago, after returning from Alaska, I was taken with catarrh of the stomach, and in fact of the whole system. My stomach failed me, as nothing I ate seemed to do me any good, but always gave me pains and belching of gas. My kidneys got sore and weak, I had palpitation of the heart, my lungs were sore, and it was difficult to draw a long breath. I also had fainting spells, and while walking was afraid I might fall to the sidewalk. I also had to get up at night and sit in a chair to keep from another. My legs and arms pained me most of the time, my feet were cold on the hottest day, my tongue was coated. I had chills from my head to my feet. I was weak and had very little life, and everything looked dark to me, and often wished for the end."
"I took all kinds of medicine—do not think there is a drug store in the city that I did not get some truck from. I also used vapor baths, dieted, drank all the mineral waters, had many consultations with two of the best doctors of this city, used their prescriptions, but all seemed of no use."
"After months of this kind of work I fully made up my mind to try Peruna, and thank God for it, as I had not used over two bottles until I felt a change, and have been getting better ever since, and now I am well and strong. All my friends tell me how well I look. Let me say to those who are sick, try Peruna. If you have any of my symptoms, it will cure you. Don't expect to be cured by one bottle, but stick to it until cured."—J. Edward Clark.

A Young Mother's Letter.

Mrs. W. McRoberts writes to Dr. Hartman from Delano, Minn., the following:
"I feel perfectly well of catarrh. I did as you directed me to and took Peruna and Mandlin. The third of March I gave birth to a ten-pound baby girl, and we are both well and happy. I am very thankful to you, and Peruna saved my life. I recommend it to every one and can't praise it enough. "I send you my own and my baby's picture. She is so sweet and good, she is a Peruna baby. I have such good health now I do all my household work and take care of my baby, and feel so good. There are three or four of my neighbors using Peruna now, since it did me so much good. They were just run down, and they think it is fine. It is so good to give strength."—Mrs. W. McRoberts.

A Fireman's Letter.

Mr. John Sweeting, Captain Fire Department of Evanston, Ill., says:
"Some time ago, while on duty on a fire, I was completely exhausted and felt my nerves give way. One of our men had tried Peruna a couple of years ago, and he advised us to try it. We did so, and found the change simply marvelous. A dose seemed better than a meal, and in ten days we were all feeling fine."—John Sweeting.

A Band-Master's Letter.

W. H. Santelmann, Leader of the U. S. Marine Corps Band of Washington, D. C., writes:
"I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of your Peruna. My wife is now using it and she is very much improved. As a spring tonic I know of nothing better, and take pleasure in recommending it to all who are in need of a good, safe remedy."—W. H. Santelmann.
"If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis."
Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Midsummer Night's Dream At the University of Utah

Students Who Will Take Part in "Midsummer Night's Dream" at the University.

Shakespeare ate a wicker-wurst and then a bowl of cream and had a little dream. The Midsummer Night's Dream is a comedy. "A Midsummer Night's Dream." These students possess rare ability as stage performers and their lack of fame is due entirely to the fact that they are not better known. Be certain, however, that their fame will spread after their next Friday night's appearance, and it is really doubtful if this high class company will ever again appear before a Salt Lake audience. The Midsummer Night's Dream will present the play as it might have been presented in the days of Shakespeare. While this does away with the use of scenery and the intermission between acts, down to half a second, it gives rise to the difficult proposition of securing some very antique costumes. Just what these costumes will be like is a matter of conjecture. The company's manager reports that in size they are unapproachable, in color indescribable, in form varied, in quality rare, and in style nobly.

JAPAN IS READY WITH FINE EXHIBIT

Progressive Nation Has Not Permitted Home Troubles to Interfere With Fair Plans.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—Japan's exhibit in the palace of varied industries at the World's fair was finished, and ready for the inspection of exposition throngs, two weeks before the opening day. The completion of the exhibit was celebrated by a typical Japanese function, participated in by the members of the Japanese commission and some of the prominent World's fair officials.
The booth erected by the Japanese Government in the world's industrial palace is one of the largest in that mammoth structure, and is the largest and handsomest ever built by that Government at any exposition. In this one building Japan occupies more than 50,000 square feet of floor space. The entrance to the booth is a reproduction of one of the gateways of the famous Temple Nikko, the most beautiful piece of Japanese architecture in the world. It is all done in a mosaic effect in the original colors. Vases and statuary from eight feet down to a few inches in height, and varying in cost from a few dollars to $2000 or $4000, are shown in the exhibit. Embroidery in silk, brocade and ivory statuary, gold lacquer work, screens, lanterns and the famous cloisonne work, all done by famous artists in Japan, are represented in the collection. It takes three years to complete a good piece of cloisonne work, and the bronze or silver jars have to be put through fire ten and twelve times before the work is complete.
The Mikado's commission is making a wonderful showing at the Louisiana Purchase exposition. The site on which the national pavilion and the typical Japanese gardens have been created covers an area of 15,000 square feet. In the palace of manufactures the Japanese exhibits cover a floor space of 25,000 feet; in the palace of transportation, 14,000 feet; in agriculture, 7452, art, 3012 feet; mines and metallurgy, 4968; education, 3989; electricity, 1165; forestry, fish and game, 4969 square feet.

SCHOOL GARDENS RUN BY UNCLE SAM

Boy With the Hoe Will Be in Evidence in Government's Thirty Gardens.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—The man with the hoe has had his day and the United States Government, through its bureau of plant industry, has started out the boy with the hoe. Every day at the World's fair bare-armed, sunburned little gardeners may be seen working in the thirty Government school gardens, established as object lessons for the public. These little farmers and gardeners are teaching older heads and older hands how to plant and sow, how to use the spade and hoe. Their busy little hands, guided by trained minds, do garden and farm work scientifically. The antiquated methods of tilling the soil are not countenanced by these hardy youngsters. They are learning the science of gardening and farming, and the boy with the hoe has become the teacher of men.
For many years Germany, France, Sweden and other European countries have made a feature of school gardening, and so apparent have been the benefits of this work that more than 200,000 European schools now maintain school gardens. The United States Government has had experts studying this phase of practical education, and making an extensive exhibit at the World's fair, showing thirty model school gardens and giving a practical demonstration of this movement. This work is done under the immediate supervision of the United States bureau of plant industry, a part of the Department of Agriculture, and is under the supervision of Prof. C. F. Wheeler, Government expert in charge of economic gardens.
The thirty model gardens are being worked by pupils selected by the Civic League of St. Louis, and are under the direction of Prof. H. D. Hemenway, director of the School of Horticulture of Harvard, Conn. These ambitious young gardeners are striving to surpass one another in nature's work, and this cannot fail to materially stimulate interest in gardening as part of school training.
The government has a 400-acre farm at Arlington, Va., the former home of Gen. Lee, which is devoted to plant industry. In this big model farm, garden and orchard and all kinds of plant life is studied scientifically, and now the government is embracing the opportunity offered by the World's fair to give the public a series of object lessons in nature study and teach the fundamental principles of agriculture to the common schools. Manual training schools have been tried for years with excellent results. The school garden bears the same relationship to agriculture that manual training does to mechanics. It teaches farming, gardening and plant culture practically and theoretically, and to the other school branches it adds a department of agriculture and teaches scientific farming.

This is the first great outdoor exhibit ever made by the Government at an exposition, and it provides a feature that may prove both useful and interesting to the general public and of invaluable interest to all who are concerned in the cultivation of plants. Thus World's fair visitors have an opportunity to gain much useful knowledge.
